

FLASHOVER SIMULATOR

The fire department hosted the State Fire Marshal's flashover simulator at our fire house recently. Fire fighters from Suffield, Rootstown, and Hartville took part in the four-hour class complete with practical skills. The practical portion of the class involved sitting in the trailer in a 300 degree environment and being able to witness a fire flashover first hand.

